F. E. NELSON ARRESTED

And Taken to Shreveport, La., On a Very Serious Charge.

SALE OF PATENT RIGHT

Said to Be the Cause of His Prosecution---Officer Arrived Monday.

F. E. Nelson, who has been in business here for several weeks, was arrested last Thursday on a telegram to the chief of police who held him under guard until Monday when an officer from Shreveport, La., arrived and took him to that city. The charge against him is obtaining money under false pretenses, growing out of the sale of a patent right for the State of Oklahoma.

Mr. Nelson protests his innocence of any wrong doing, Shreveport being his home. His attorney wired him that bond had been arranged upon his arrival. His wife and child are here and Mr. Nelson expects to return in a few days.

During his stay here he has made a number of friends who hope that his trouble is not serious.

DAVIS WAY PROPOSED

Rush C. Watkins, of Louisville, Taking Lead In Great Highway.

HOPKINSVILLE TO LOUISVILLE

To Be Put On Foot At A Conference Called At Elkton—
To-day.

The building of great public highways is now attracting wide-spread attention in both Kentucky and Tennessee. Tennessee has undertaken to construct an improved and permanent highway from Bristol to Memphis, nearly 400 miles long. The movement to construct a "Lincoln way" from Louisville, via the Lincoln farm, to Bowling Green and thence to Nashville has assumed definite shape and this week was set apart to begin the actual work of construction all along the route. The various counties have contributed amply to the project and in the spirit of rivalry there is likely to be two distinct routes built, some distance apart. Mr. Rush C. Watkins, of Louisville, who was here a day or two this week has arranged for a meeting at Elkton to day to work up a "Davis Way" connecting with the "Lincoln Way" at Bowling Green, running from Hopkinsville via the Jefferson Davis Home at Fairview. Such a route would pass through Warren, Logan, Todd and Christian counties, about 65 miles.

Mr. Watkins has asked the judges and magistrates and city officials of all interested cities to attend the conference and put the work on foot and discuss the plans for improving this highway, connecting the Davis Home at Fairview with the Lincoln Home at Hedgenville. The plans even go further. Mr. Watkins says Clarksville should join in and see that its roads are reconstructed from Clarksville, to Paris on to Brownsville Tenn., where it would connect with the Memphis to Bristol road. A beautiful route from Louisville to Memphis and New Orleans could then be obtained.

The rains have interfered with the proposed meeting. It was planned to make the trip from here in a dozen or so automobiles, but the mud roads a part of the way are now in bad shape and it may be necessary to go by rail.

We Can Spare Some.

Louisville, July 31.—In many sections of Kentucky, especially in the central and eastern portions of the state, the worst drouth known in years is playing havoc with the crops.

In several counties streams and cisterns are dry, and drinking water is scarce. Fleming county has called upon neighboring counties for help, and 10,000 barrels of water have been shipped there. Tobacco and all other crops have been severely affected, and will be weeks late, if not entirely ruined. It has been five weeks since any rain of consequence fell in Eastern Kentucky, and some of the celebrated bluegrass is looking very brown.

BLACK MAMMY

Whose Dream Will Figure in
The Prosecution of Beattie
For Uxoricide.

Richmond, Va., July 31.—A horrible dream in which Maizi Green, the old negro "mammy" who nurse Mrs. Henry Clay Beattie through her illness at the time of the birth of her child, saw her mistress murdered, Friday became a part of the material with which the prosecution hopes to convict Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., of the crime. The aged woman's testimony has given the authorities a psychological feature, which they consider of the utmost value.

Maizi Green relates that one midnight about June 18, as she was sleeping in the same room with Mrs.
Beattie and her baby, she had a fearful dream and shrieked aloud in her sleep, awakening Mrs. Beattie.

"What is the matter, Maizi?" asked Mrs. Beattie, startled.

"Miss Louise, I saw a man creep into the room, pass around my couch and point a gun at your face—" then the woman hesitated.

"Well, go on," Mrs. Beattie said.

"What else?"

"The man put the gun to your face and pulled the trigger. Just as the gun exploded it tore into your face," continued the negress,
"and you were killed."

Next day the negro woman related the dream to others, and on Tuesday night, July 18, it was made a reality on Midlothian turnpike, when Mrs. Beattie was shot to death while riding with her husband in his automobile.

Twenty-six Lost.

Paris, Aug. 2.—Although the climbing season in the Alps has only begun, twenty-six tourists have been killed and an unknown number injured. If this rate continues until the close of the season, September 15, the death rate will be the deadliest on record.

Death in nearly every case has been the result of foolhardiness, and has frequently been due to tourists going up alone, a violation of the first rule of mountain climbing.

Two Girl Victims.

Cleveland, O., July 31.—Two women were killed and a man probably fatally injured when an Erlanger train struck an automobile on a crossing at North Randall late today. The dead are: Miss Louise Snow, aged 21, of Cleveland, and Miss Margaret Tuller of Chicago, aged 20, who was visiting Miss Snow. The driver of the machine has a broken shoulder.

The body of Miss Snow was wedged in the pilot of the engine and carried a quarter of a mile.
Miss Tuller's body was burned to a crisp in the wreckage of the automobile, which took fire after the crash.

Who Was There That You Knew?

IN the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $30,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years—they are buried there still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—no died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knoed from pillar to post for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan (later) secured the collection—Ex-President Garfield and General Benjamin F. Butler said it was worth $150,000—yet the help of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photograhs.
It is the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War

CLASSY RACES BIG FEATURE OF FAIR

TROTTING AND PACING EVENTS WILL STIR BLOOD IN VEINS OF ALL HORSE LOVERS.

Not content with an exceptionally good racing card in the past, L. B. Shropshire, assistant secretary of the Kentucky State Fair, has figured it out that a couple of added stakes would about suit the popular taste and he has suggested two trotting races, one a 2:17 and the other a 2:20 event. This suggestion met the approval of James L. Dent, member in charge.

The early closing events, in which the entries closed June 1, include the 2:15, 2:17, 2:20 and 2:25 classes in the trotting, and the 2:14 and the 2:22 classes in the pacing events. The purse in each of these events is $600. The additional classes include the following offerings: Trotting—2:24, 2:18 and 2:14 classes, purse $500 each. Pacing—2:25, 2:15 and free-for-all classes, purse $500 each.

Entries for the class races will close September 4, 1911. The program of races, distributed as they are and calling for a grand total of $6,600 in purses, should be sufficient to attract not only a bunch of horses which will furnish some excellent sport but also an attendance of enthusiasts on each of the five days.

DATES WHEN ENTRIES FOR FAIR WILL CLOSE

SECRETARY SHY CALLS ATTENTION TO FACT THAT RULES WILL BE STRICTLY ADHERED TO.

Secretary Perry M. Shy, of the Kentucky State Fair Board, is anxious to have the fact impressed on the minds of prospective exhibitors that the final dates fixed for the closing of entries in all departments will be strictly adhered to. "In this way only," said Secretary Shy, "can I treat every one alike. This I intend doing and it will be necessary to refuse to receive entries after the dates set forth."

In the Women's department, Field, Seed and Grain, and Poultry, which always are of great interest, it is urged that prospective contestants get in early.

The dates on which entries to the different departments will close are as follows:

- Women's Department, Saturday, September 2.
- Cattle, Monday, September 4.
- Field, Seed and Grain, Monday, September 4.
- Swine, Monday, September 4.
- Sheep, Monday, September 4.
- Poultry, Thursday, September 7.
- Horses, Thursday, September 7.
- Mules and Jacks, Thursday, September 7.
- Dollie Dogs, Tuesday, September 5.
- Plants and Flowers, Monday, September 11.
- Horticultural, Monday, September 11.

"I'll Be There; Will You?"

CATCHY SLOGAN FOR BOOSTING OF STATE FAIR IS DECIDED UPON.

A slogan for the ninth Kentucky State Fair has been decided upon and it is expected to become a household word before September 11 rolls around. It is as follows:

"I'll be there; will you?"

The state fair management thinks that all Kentuckians and southern indians should be "boosters" for the Kentucky State Fair and this slogan is suggested as an appropriate one to use in that connection. It will be advertised extensively and the hope is expressed that it will be taken up and used generously.

In using this slogan the person doing so suggests first that he or she is going to attend the fair and thus become a "booster." It then asks the question: "Will you?" In other words, it puts it up to the person addressed to get busy and join in making the fair the greatest in the history of the south. Just as the greeting "Howdy!" became a household word in and around Louisville when the Mystic Shrine met in that city, so is the greeting, "I'll be there; will you?" expected to become equally popular the length and breadth of the state.

FINE FOR THE CANDIDATES

BIG DAY DURING KENTUCKY STATE FAIR SET ASIDE IN THEIR INTEREST.

A Kentucky community without one or more candidates, present or prospective, for a state or district office, is a sad community indeed. In old Kentucky, according to tradition, children are taught political dogmas with their prayers. But add to the great host of candidates for the more important offices the army of those seeking city, or county, positions and a force will be brought together sufficient to drive both Madero and Diaz, with their followers out of the turbulent country of Mexico and into the sea.

The decision, therefore, to have one day of Kentucky State Fair week set aside to be known as Candidate's day is certain to meet with vociferous approval and there need be no fear of a record breaking crowd for the day on that occasion.

FRANCE IS A GOOD EXAMPLE

Nation of Small Farmers, Full of Wealth but With Few Multi-Millionaires.

There is not a nation on earth that has prospered for any length of time that has not fostered and cared for her agricultural life. Read the history of the old nations of the world, the old world, and you will find that those nations who have neglected their agricultural life and devoted their energies in other directions have slowly gone down and become the paupers of the world. Take France as an illustration. There is a nation of small farmers. Only a few years ago, within the remembrance of every person present, she had to pay an indemnity of $2,000,000,000 to Germany and lost two of her most valuable territories, and yet today she is the money lender of the world. There are very few multi-millionaires in France, but it is the wealth of the people, it is the whole people. She is simply a nation of farmers, of small farmers, and yet hers are the most progressive, the most successful, the most money-making men there are in all the world as a nation. Then why should not we here cultivate that very condition with us?—John A. Mead.

ALWAYS NEED FOR FIGHTERS

Reign of Universal Peace Will Not Do Away With Chances for Daring.

It is feared by some that the reign of universal peace will deprive them of the opportunity of exhibiting daring and heroism. Without inquiring too carefully what use has been made of their present opportunities by those who express this fear, it must be said that such a fear is altogether groundless. There are an infinite number of positions in life in which courage is needed as much as on a battlefield, though, for the most part, with less risk of that total annihilation which in the past has done so much to breed out the courageous stocks. Moreover, the certain establishment of peace will immensely enlarge the scope for daring and adventure in the social sphere. There are departments in the higher breeding and social evolution of the race—some perhaps even involving questions of life and death—where the highest courage is needed. But those persons who are burning to display heroism may rest assured that the course of social evolution will offer them every opportunity.—Havelock Ellis, in Atlantic.

PAPAL TRAIN TO BE RELIC.

The splendid Papal train, the present of Napoleon III. to Pius IX., was brought the other night from the workshops at Florence where it has been under repair, to Rome. The train, which consists of three carriages, including sleeping apartment, had, owing to long disuse, grown rusty in the springs and framework, and the rich fittings and ornamental woodwork were removed while it underwent a thorough overhauling. Everything is now restored in the original, and the train is the most luxurious specimen of rolling stock in the world. It is hardly likely that a pope will ever travel in it, and it is to be transferred to the Castle of St. Angelo, to enrich the museum of art and industry in that ancient fortress.

SWORD-FISH PIERCED PLANK.

A curious sea yarn was told by the crew of the W. G. Hall, when the vessel put into port recently. While crossing the Hawaii channel, the crew report, the boat struck an enormous sword-fish and the impact was so great that the sharp edges of the fish's teeth went through the planking of the vessel, so that she immediately sprang a leak. When the story was told, of course, landsmen were skeptical of it and refused to believe that a sword-fish could pierce even a wooden vessel, but it pointed out that the fish could gather speed of fully sixty miles an hour. There is sufficient evidence to show that the fish did damage the boat.

A SLIGHT HITCH.

"Is old Grubbs pursuing an honest life now?"
"Yes, but he hasn't caught up with it yet."

THE WAY OF IT.

"You say the cook has been impertinent? Well, don't take notice of her."
"I won't. I've just given it."

WAS SHOCK TO THE SENATE

Three Young Men "Spoke Right Up" Without Regard for the Old-Time Members.

Senatorial precedents are experiencing hard times. The general rule of the senate for a great many years concerning new members is very similar to the old-fashioned family maxim, that little boys should be seen and not heard. The "little boys" of the senate broke into the discussion on the Lorimer case, while gray-headed and bald-headed veterans gasped in astonishment. Luke Lea of Tennessee, who is only thirty-two years old, and looks younger, had his say without the slightest regard for the feelings of the octogenarians. So did Senator Kenyon of Iowa, formerly a government trust buster and now classed as an insurgent Republican. Kenyon is pretty youthful himself.

He said very frankly that he had heard a lot of talk about senatorial courtesy during his brief experience in the upper house, but he did not propose to let it stand in the way of expressing his honest convictions on any subject. He was against the proposal to send the Lorimer case to the committee on privileges and elections.

Senator Works of California also made a speech against the same proposition. The latter is not youthful in years, but he is very young in the ways of the august and honorable senate. He is also very insurgent. With these three newcomers violating time-honored customs all in one day the senate indeed suffered a nervous shock.—Brooklyn Eagle.

BETWEEN DRINKS

Do you look upon champagne as a necessity?
Oh, no. A $15 headache comes under the head of luxuries.

HE FELL IN ACTION.

They were talking of war, and the young man mentioned that one of his ancestors was killed during the Revolution, says the Youth's Companion. "He was a brave man," he said, "and we are all very proud of his record."

The young woman looked pensive. "I had an uncle who was killed in the Civil war, the very first battle he ever went to," she said. "He was only a private, so he hadn't made any record."

"That was hard," the young man said, "to be shot down in his first engagement."

"He wasn't shot down," the young woman said. "He fell and broke his neck when he was running down hill. I think war is awful cruel, don't you?"

THEIR HANDICAP.

One summer I spent my vacation in the village of B— on a farm with two old maids. The corn season had just opened and we had corn every day. I observed when Mary ate corn Lizzy didn't; when Lizzy did Mary didn't. I couldn't figure it out, so one day I said:

"Mary, how does it happen when you eat corn Liz doesn't, and when Liz does you don't?"

"Ho, ho," said Mary, a little hot under the collar, "we hain't only one set of teeth, you darned fool."—Exchange.

THE PROPHET'S CAT.

Mohammed cut off his sleeve to avoid waking the cat.
"We want to leave it behind when we go away for the summer," he explained.

Herewith he worked up a reputation for tenderheartedness.

THE GREAT SERVICE.

Dad Waller—He never did anything fer nobody.

Pop Weeks—You're mistaken. His folks wanted him to take lessons on the cornet and he refused.

POINTS GIRLS TO KITCHENS

Octave Thanet Says They Should Work There for Good Wages and Good Living.

Octave Thanet recently expressed herself to some Chicago friends on woman's suffrage and the servant question.

"The militant suffragettes," she said, "will probably get what they want; they need it more than we do. But the situation in Colorado is sufficient for me—if not a worse political condition than before the woman had the vote, certainly not a better. And as for women wanting a hand in the housekeeping of the nation, look what she has done with her own housekeeping—look at the servant problem!"

"But isn't it the working girl who most needs the vote?" was asked.

"The working girl!" she fairly exploded. "What the working girl is perishing for is not votes, but common or garden sense. If she had it she wouldn't risk her soul and body in unsanitary, underpaid, crowded trades in which she does one thing over and over, learning nothing that will ever help her or fit her to be a wife and a mother; when she has only to go to the nearest intelligence office to find good wages, good food, all the hot water she wants; and every opportunity to learn what will help her all her life long. Where we are idiots is that we have not made this plain to her long ago."—Exchange.

Hix—He's sent out circulars to all the doctors in town.

DINED ON THE PARROT.

Col. George W. Goethals, engineer in chief at the canal zone, has a joke on himself which is affording amusement to his brother officers. While in Panama Colonel Goethals had a pet parrot, the cleverness and remarkable qualities of which he admired greatly. But the bird had an embarrassing habit of repeating remarks it heard, and besides had a noisy and boisterous disposition. One day when it had been particularly talkative, Colonel Goethals' negro attendant overheard the colonel say: "You old bird! I'll have you fried if you don't stop talking!" The next day when the colonel sat down to luncheon he had what appeared to be a fine chicken set before him. "This chicken has a queer taste," he said to his negro, when he sampled it. "Dat ain't no chicken, boss," the negro replied; "dat's dat 'er parrot. It didn't stop talkin'."

LET HER DO AS SHE PLEASES.

Men have said, says Chancellor James R. Day of Syracuse university, that the best thing for woman is a good, strong man to control her. It must have been a long time since that man was administered by his mother or by his sister or by some one else's sister. You can't control woman, even though you claim to be the head of the family. You will learn to obey her commands meekly—especially when she insists that she is being robbed of her rights. This is getting a little on the border of the suffragette and I am frank to say that I don't know where I am on that question. I am in favor of letting woman have what she wants and of letting her do as she pleases.

SAW MOONLIGHT RAINBOW.

A moonlight rainbow that hung over the sea for a quarter of an hour was seen on Friday night 600 miles or more from the Atlantic coast by passengers on the White Star liner Arabic, which is at her dock here. Scores of passengers and the crew watched the rainbow develop and disappear. The phenomenon is one of the rarest of marine spectacles.—New York correspondent Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Whistled As It Passed.

Here is one of the many remarks by the Henderson Journal after the rivers and harbors committee did no more to let the people of that town know that the committee was in the neighborhood than a mere passing toot of the Kanawha's whistle: "The barbecue was here by the dam site, but the congressmen weren't there by a dam sight."

Found a Pearl.

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 1.—William H. Soaper, who with a force of hands has been extensively engaged in mussel fishing in the Ohio river, recently made a lucky find in the shape of a fresh water pearl as large as a medium-sized marble. He has been offered $500 for this pearl, but has refused the offer, saying that he could get $800 for it. A year or two ago he found one smaller than this one, which he sold for $400.

Must Dip Sheep.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 2.—All sheep shipped into Kentucky after August 10, unless they are for immediate slaughter will have to be dipped in a lime-sulphur or tobacco dip under the supervision of a Federal officer. What's In McClure's For August.

The leading article in the August McClure's is an account in Detective Burns' own words of the events that led up to the arrest of John McNamara, the secretary-treasurer of the Structural Iron Workers Union, and his brother James for the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times Building in October, 1910. In spite of the storm of controversy that has raged around this case, and the important issues involved in it, the general public has in the main no very clear idea of the evidence upon which the arrest was made. For the man who honestly desires to know the facts, whatever his sympathies may be, "The Dynamiters," Detective Burns' straightforward and convincing story will have an absorbing interest.

LEM MOTLOW IN TEST CASE

Is Convicted of Violating Manufacturers Liquor Law.

AN APPEAL IS TAKEN

Cases Involve The Validity of The State Wide Liquor Law.

Lynchburg, Tenn., Aug. 1.--Lem Motlow, proprietor and manager of the Jack Daniel distillery, was convicted in the circuit court here this afternoon of operating his distillery in violation of the statute, commonly called the manufacturers' bill, prohibiting the manufacture of liquor in Tennessee. In accordance with an agreement between the attorneys representing the state and the defendants, Mr. Motlow was tried on two of the several indictments recently returned against him by the grand jury. In each of the two cases he was convicted, and in each of them Judge Davis imposed the minimum penalty prescribed by the law, assessed a fine against the defendant of $250 and sentenced him to ninety days in jail in each case. An appeal will be taken to the supreme court.

QUAINT WEDDING IN ENGLAND.

A quaint Singalese wedding took place at Sunderland, Eng., recently at an exhibition, where a large number of natives are appearing. The ceremony was according to Mahomedan rites and was witnessed by a large crowd. The bride was aged fourteen and the bridegroom twenty. The bridal pair were followed by a grotesquely attired native wearing a mask with horns to represent a bull, the lucky animal of the tribe. The leading feature of the ceremony was a lengthy "haggle" between the bridegroom and the bride's father as to the price to be paid for the bride.

LIFE INSURANCE A SAVING

It is the Best Patronized of All Recognized Modes of Thrift in America.

The number of persons in this country who make use of life insurance as a means of saving exceeds the total number who avail themselves of all the other recognized modes of thrift. Thus, if we add together 9,000,000 of savings bank depositors, the 7,000,000 of persons who own their own homes, the 2,000,000 building and loan society stockholders and the 1,750,000 of corporation stockholders, we shall have, not reckoning duplications, not more than 20,000,000 of investors, whereas the number of persons who hold policies, ordinary and industrial, in life insurance companies, exceeds 28,000,000. These 28,000,000 do not include the number of certificate holders in fraternal and assessment associations. The total life insurance carried in the United States today is about $150 per head of the population, a sum considerably greater than that of any other country in the world. The companies reporting to the New York insurance department had on December 31, 1910, $14,680,268,315 insurance in force. They had a total premium income of $533,060,996, and assets amounting to $3,665,630,535, which represent approximately as large a sum of money as the total savings in all the banks of the country.—Moody's Magazine.

Young Girl's Brave Act.
Remarkable bravery and presence of mind were displayed lately by Gwendie Franklin, aged 16, of New York, when she saved two boys from being burned to death. Half a dozen youngsters bedecked in war costumes of Indians were playing around a "council fire" in a vacant lot when George McCullough, aged six, got too close to the fire, and his clothes became ignited. His brother, Alexander, a year older, tried to beat out the flames and the fire spread to his clothing. The girl leaning out of the window of her home saw the accident, and the two brothers rolling on the ground. She ran out of doors, leaped over a fence and holding first one boy and then the other, heaped sand over them till the fire was extinguished. Both boys were unconscious, but not seriously injured.

Bees Recognize Man as Friend.
Charles Potchenick, employed by the Maverick sparrows near San Antonio, Tex., has unusual control over bees. He handles them with as much ease as one would in playing with kittens or a harmless pet. While working with them he goes bare-armed and bare-faced and pays no attention to the insects as they crawl over his exposed hands and arms or pile up in great clumps on his face. Recently he had a picture taken holding a small limb in his teeth on which a swarm had settled. The bees formed a kind of long beard hanging below his waist and his entire face was covered with those that crawled from the limb. Old bee keepers say that his feats in handling bees are the most remarkable in the world. He claims that he has not been stung in two years.

Moguls.

Hopkinsville made it three with Vincennes and started the Harris-game to the good.

The contest was one sided until the ninth inning when the visitors rallied and tied the score, but the Moguls promptly untied it in their half and quit with strikes to spare.
Errors figured in the scoring of both teams. Kenefick was hit freely in the first stage of the game and was succeeded by Gossage in the ninth.

Conklin Still At It.

Vincennes, Ind., July 31.—With the score 17 to 14 in favor of Vincennes today, the game was forfeited to the home team following a dispute with umpire Conklin. This was after five innings of terrific batting by both sides.

Bunts And Flies.

The Henderson papers are boasting of winning a game from Yon, something that has been done only four times this year. George Hancock, who happened to be in the box when Yon had his off day, is actually put by Henderson enthusiasts in the same class with the best pitcher in the league.

The word "Mogul" appears on the shirts of the Hoptowns. Mogul, is the name of a brand of playing cards, a locomotive and a wagon, and ruler in India. Can't see why it should be pasted on the front of a baseball team.—Henderson Journal.

After your team beats us for the pennant we'll let you change the name for us.

Gene Curtiss, the former Nashville outfielder who has been managing the Clarksville Kitty League club, has been released by the Clarksville management. Up to date no manager has been selected for the Clarksville club. Outfielder Doubles is acting captain and manager of the club at present, and it may be that he will be retained permanently in that capacity.

Pitcher Nagle of the Boston Americans, whom President John I.
Taylor of the Red Sox obtained from the Pittsburgh National League, is getting Christian Science treatment for a sore arm.

Clayton Pickering's foot is improving and Vincennes Capital says he will be back in the game next week.

Gwinn, with Paducah last season,
is now with Cairo.

Unless some first class pitchers are secured the Alices cannot expect to make a showing. Newton is the only member of the staff who looks like a twirler. Crane went well for a while but has fallen down. Flynn has been lucky to win at all. Bailey may do something here but his work last season and this does not predict a bright future for him.—Capital.

Hopkinsville is the only team that has four good pitchers.

Binkley shut out Vincennes Saturday by 5 to 0. He is still making good with Cairo.

Claybourne Beasley has received his check for $50 for hitting the Durham bull at Terry Haute in June.

Vincennes started in Saturday for 16 straight games on its home diamond.

Jack Summers, third baseman in Manager Nairn's Moguls, took French leave Tuesday night, after drawing his first month's pay.
Summers came from Altoona, Pa., July 1 and was put at second.
When Cooper was signed he was transferred to third, where he had made a very fast and satisfactory player and a good hitter. Summers told his team-mates that he didn't like his job and left on a night train.

Clif Wilkins, a local player, was put in Tuesday to fill an unexpected shortage in the Mogul team, and caught the same with good success.
He made one hit, secured a walk and his work behind the bat was not characterized by any fatal errors.

Umpire Weber is here for the first time. Conklin went to Vincennes, and Pollard to Clarksville.

Class D. ball, the class in which the Kitty League is, is governed by the same rules as the big leagues, and a man once suspended cannot play anywhere in organized ball until reinstated in the team suspending him. Any team that plays him will be outlawed. If Summers has jumped without excuse he will be fined and suspended, which will end his career as a ball player.

Fulton is now at Vincennes with Conklin to contend with.

Rev C. H. H. Branch is an old college football and baseball athlete, and used to be known as "Bulldog" Branch. If the Moguls need any recruits for sudden emergencies, Bro.
Branch could be put in a blue uniform and show how he got his pugnacious nickname.

Raymond Troy Brown, pitcher for Paducah, is reported to have been sold to Philadelphia for $1000 and $500, two reports. His real name is Puckett and he came from northern Indiana. He has done nothing in the Kitty to attract attention. He is to report next fall.

Two new men have been wired to report at once and are expected here by today. One is a utility catcher and fielder and the other a third baseman, to take Summers' place. Both are said to be corking good men.

Cook & Higgins' upper drug store has one of the neatest show windows we have seen around here recently. It consists of the miniature reproduction of a base ball game at the local park. The players are represented by little dolls, costumed with blue "Mogul" suits. The home team is in the field with Marcus Merritt handling the indicator behind Doll Yon.

In the grandstand some of the regular fans are to be found. V.
M., Nat, Will H., and others are in their customary seats. The scene is exact even to Petre in the bleachers with his green umbrella, Dallas at the gate and the "Hit the Bull" sign in center. Incidentally, the score board shows the usual score in favor of the Moguls.

FISCAL COURT.

Regular Monthly Session Held Here Tuesday

The fiscal court met here Tuesday in regular monthly session. Considerable business was transacted.

W. J. Murphy, was instructed, as delinquent tax collector, to collect the delinquent poll and road taxes which have not been listed for the past five years.

John C. Duffy, county attorney, was instructed to bring suit against all subscribers to turnpike funds in the county who have not paid by Aug 15.
The bid of Sidney Elliott to build the pike on the Johnson mill road was accepted.

An appropriation of $200 was made to Poor Commissioner Randle, to be expended in paying poor claims.

A batch of poor house claims amounting to about $60 was allowed, and miscellaneous claims amounting to about $450, including $25 to officers holding the local option election at Crofton, were allowed.

FARMERS' FREE LIST IS PASSED

Compromise Dictated By Republican Insurgents Accepted By Democrats.

ORIGINAL BILL BEATEN

By Treachery of Bailey And Absence of Smith of Georgia.

Washington, Aug. 2.—The democratic tariff program was moved up closer to Pres. Taft Monday when the senate, by another remarkable coalition of democrats and republican insurgents, passed a farmers' free list bill after voting down the original house measure by one vote.

The "unholy alliance," as the combination of the republican wing and the democratic party has been called, massed in almost unbroken alignment, swept aside a host of amendments, voted down by a tie the original house measure, according to program for political purposes, and then carried by a surprising concentration of strength a measure differing from the house bill only in comparatively unimportant particulars.

Now the bill goes back to the house, and Democratic Leader Underwood, of the body, confidently asserts that it will be finally agreed to in conference between the two houses and sent to President Taft.

BAILEY GOT HIS WISH.
Had Senator Bailey, of Texas, voted with his democratic associates, or had Gov. Hoke Smith, of Georgia, as the new senator-elect from that state, been on hand and voted with his party, the free list bill would have passed the senate unchanged and could have been in the hands of President Taft tonight. One vote was all that stood in the way of placing the entire issue of democratic insurgent tariff reform immediately before him.

Mr. Bailey announced last night that he hoped the privilege of casting the deciding vote would fall to him in order to show his opposition.
Gov. Smith has insisted all along that he would not leave Georgia at this time to assume his seat in the senate.

Conklin's Latest Outbreak.

Umpire Conklin recognized his "Master's Voice" in the grand stand at Vincennes Monday and put the hooks to poor Cairo, which has had the audacity to beat Vincennes in percentage something like 300 points, until the team was whittled below the number required to play.
The trouble started when Conklin put "Dummy" Hughes out of the game for "talking" too much. The Vincennes Capital does not give all of the details, but says Manager Flood kicked so hard over Conklin's decisions that, in the seventh inning, he broke a quorum by putting Flood out of the game when he had nobody left to take his place and presented Mr. Gosnell with the game 9 to 0.
The score at that time was 17 to 14 in favor of Vincennes, with the game not settled in the terrific slugging match going on. Each side played with three pitchers. The Cairo Bulletin refers to Conklin's decisions as "characteristic" and says: "His work was condemned by all except those who were with the Umpire, determined that the game should be won by the locals at whatever cost.
Umpire Conklin's work all over their circuit has been the subject of much criticism which has reached President Gosnell, and it may have been Umpire Conklin's desire to make things easy for the Vincennes team that he might hold his
